Dear Friends of the Tourism Industry, bonjour

A robust approximate of 83 million tourists visit France annually, making it a leading tourism destination in the world. These encouraging figures motivate us to push our best foot forward and showcase France’s wealth of culture, heritage and its rich repertoire of tourism sites for our visitors to enjoy and experience.

France offers its tourists a unique experience of discovering the world in a country. A multi-faceted destination, France invites its travellers to begin their journey at iconic monuments such as the Eiffel Tower and continue their voyage of discovery to a selection of 13 diverse regions each of which have a unique distinct identity of its own. A plethora of holiday options await the traveller: seaside holidays, vineyard and gastronomy trails, city breaks, adventure escapades, alpine retreats and self-drive getaways. France’s overseas territories also lure the traveller with their distinct way of life and picturesque locales. France finds favour with every genre of traveller. From the first-time traveller to the discerning globe-trotter in search of experiential holidays to the corporate traveller in search for exceptional venues and locales for meetings and incentives; our destination is perfectly adapted to meet the needs and requirements of all its visitors. An important and intangible aspect that also enhances France’s appeal as a tourist destination is its unique art de vivre or way of life. This unique aspect reflects in the everyday life of the French and adds an interesting facet to our culture.

Our recently launched global strategy lays emphasis on highlighting signature tourism brands in France or “Marques Mondiales”. These include regions such as Alsace, Alpes-Mont Blanc, Côte Basque, Burgundy, Brittany, Bordeaux, Côte d’Azur, Corsica, Champagne, Languedoc-Roussillon, Lyon, Normandy, Provence, Paris, Touraine, Pyrénées and the Loire Valley. We have identified France’s innate areas of expertise or “pôles d’excellence” that include wine tourism, ecotourism, sports, the French Alps, the French savoir-faire and eclectic nightlife. These facets will be consistently interwoven and incorporated across marketing initiatives in a very concerted and focused manner and send out key messages to enhance the recall of France as a leading tourism destination.

The role of the travel agent is of utmost importance in disseminating this information to the potential visitor. To facilitate your sincere efforts at showcasing our destination, we have created this special user-friendly sales manual that provides you with in-depth information on our signature brands. We are certain that this manual will effectively illustrate France’s variety of tourism options and will also inspire you to customise diverse travel itineraries for your clients.

I would like to thank you for your continued support towards showcasing our destination and we look forward to working together to reinforce France’s positioning as the number one tourist destination in the world.

Paris has something for everyone - it is multifaceted, magical, mythical and sometimes a surprising capital that is always exciting.

People come to Paris to admire its exceptional architecture and cultural heritage making it one of the world’s most beautiful cities. This dynamic heritage is constantly being improved and enriched. A city where something is always happening, Paris is also the capital of gastronomy, fashion and shopping. The city is committed to upholding a high quality of life and sustainable development, offering its inhabitants and visitors a particularly pleasant setting. Innovative, audacious and vibrant, Paris has leapt boldly into the 21st century.

Paris and its region offer a unique and ideal setting for any vacation. From the Eiffel Tower to Notre-Dame to the Moulin Rouge, these traditionally symbolic monuments of Paris rival the equally breathtaking array of châteaux, landscapes, forests and valleys of its surrounding areas.
EIGHT ITINERARIES IN PARIS

The 8 itineraries below offer a wide range of experiences of all that the city has to offer:

RIVER SEINE PARIS: Walk along the river and discover the bridges of Paris, its monuments, the riverside book stalls and the various quays. The riverbanks of Paris are a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

TIMELESS PARIS: The historical heart of Paris can be found on the two islands in the Seine River: Île de la Cité and île St Louis. Notre-Dame Cathedral, Jardin des Plantes and the Latin Quarter.

TRENDY PARIS: Paris is most fashionable around these neighborhoods: Marais, Montorgueil, Hôtel de Ville and Les Halles. A good mix of heritage, fashion, art, design and shopping can be found here.

GLAMOROUS PARIS: Experience Paris in all its gold, marble and crystal splendour at the Palais Royal, Madeleine, Opéra and the Grands Boulevards emanating from the Arc de Triomphe onto the Champs-Élysées.

VILLAGE PARIS: Enjoy a village ambience at Montmartre, Pigalle, St Georges, Linville and Batignolles. Amid the tourist attractions, you will also find chic cafes, galleries and designer boutiques.

ARTISTS PARIS: Visitors can explore the stomping ground of artists. Explore literary cafes, antique galleries and book shops at Musée d’Orsay, St Germain-des-Prés, Luxembourg and Montparnasse.

MONUMENTAL PARIS: The top tourist attractions in Paris are its monuments and the fantastic views around them: the Eiffel Tower, Champs-de-Mars, Les Invalides and Trocadéro. Experience People’s Paris where people power is celebrated and remembered at areas such as République, Bastille, Oberkampf and the Plébiscite cemetery.

HIGHLIGHT EVENT

Admire the fantastic view over the rooftops of Paris from the steps of the Sacré Coeur in Montmartre, from the top of the Arc de Triomphe, at the top of the Champs Élysées or even from the 5th floor of the Centre Pompidou. Île de France is filled with destinations that are ideal for visiting with friends or family. Famous sites throughout the region include Disneyland Paris, France Miniature, the Musée Grévin wax museum, the City of Science and Industry and the Jardin d’Acclimatation. From the National Museum of Archeology in Saint-Germain-en-Laye to the Château de Versailles, the region is rich with French history.

Inner Paris boasts of nearly 70 Michelin-starred restaurants and a vast number of prestigious establishments worth experiencing! Typical brasseries serve French classics such as steak-frites and pommes parisienne [Parisian potatoes] as well as more elaborate 'bistro' style dishes. For food-on-the-go, opt for a traditional simple baguette sandwich with ham and butter from any local boulangerie or enjoy a picnic on a bench in one of the many parks the region has to offer.

Paris is still resoundingly and forever the capital of fashion, luxury and shopping! Winter and summer sales are the highlights of this key sector. The newly renovated department stores in Boulevard Haussman and les Halles are good places for shopaholics.

Sunday has also become synonymous with shopping, with the opening in 2018 of shops in twelve tourist areas including Montmartre, the Marais and the Champs Élysées.

Nightlife is always exciting: the famous Lido de Paris, the Crazy Horse, Moulin Rouge, Paradis Latin and a selection of night clubs, bars, lounges and restaurants always have something new to offer.

OVER 300 EVENTS TAKE PLACE DAILY IN PARIS, FROM CONCERTS TO EXHIBITIONS TO THEATRICAL PERFORMANCES.

Annual events such as the Paris Plages, where the banks of the Seine are transformed into beaches, the Nuit Blanche all-night art festival and la fête de la Musique, where the streets fill with music on the summer solstice, are just some of the popular happenings Paris has to offer. Paris and its region host more than 700 events per year: festivals, concerts, exhibitions, performances, fairs, sporting events and more. The city constantly showcases innovative and contemporary artworks as well as ancient and classical art within its many cultural institutions ranging from museums and galleries to the Opera house and theatre houses. Some of the top events that enliven the streets of Paris annually include the Tropical Carnival, Techno Parade and the Gay Pride Parade. Other festivals, such as Jazz à Saint Germain-des-Prés Festival and the Foire Saint-Germain showcase the city’s village-feel. Numerous music festivals give Paris and its region its sense of rhythm: Bâtonnets Electro Festival, Solidays, Rock en Seine and much more.

Paris invites you to share in the thrill of many great sporting events: The Hermes Show Jumping at the Grand Palais, The Roland Garros tennis tournament, the finish line of the Tour de France on the Champs-Élysées and the final of the Top 14 rugby at the Stade de France.

ITINERARIES

DAY 1

STRASBOURG

Begin your stay in Strasbourg, the European capital. Its large island is listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Travel through the gates of the great doors of the Notre-Dame Cathedral, a gem of Gothic art. For enthusiasts who wish to continue their visit, the Obusier Notre-Dame Museum, Place du Château, are sure to charm you. Indulge in a visit of Strasbourg on a riverboat. Head towards the pier of Palais des Rohan, a remarkable building that was once home to Marie-Antoinette when she arrived in France. You will sail from the Petite France a tourist area renowned for its half-timbered houses to the parliamentary district. In the evening, Strasbourg offers many choices for nightlife. In the center of town you will find traditional restaurants, bistros and wine bars, while the student districts of Kutsanau, of the Parvis Universitaire or of the Espalion are settings of many cafés and bars with a relaxed ambience.

COLMAR AND THE WINE ROUTE

Start your visit of Colmar with the Petite Venise: a charming maze of small canals which you can visit in a flat-bottomed boat. Don’t miss the old towns, Gothic or Renaissance gems, particularly the Saint-Martin Collegiate Church where you can see beautiful terraces during summer or the Unterlinden Museum which displays the renowned Râtel de d’Issenheim (the Isenheim Altarpiece). From Colmar, it is quite easy to discover the Alsace Wine Route. Totalling 170km, it offers many vineyard footpaths. The Egisheim trail offers a superb panorama over the village and its three castles.

MULHOUSE

Mulhouse, listed as a town of art and history, is the favorite hunting ground of enthusiasts of technical museums. Don’t miss the Automobile Museum, the Railway Museum or the Electropolis Museum. After lunch in the town centre at the top of the Tour de l’Europe or on the Place de la Réunion where the Renaissance town hall proudly stands, enjoy discovering the contemporary side of Mulhouse.

HIGHLIGHT

Alsace, rich in its heritage, is firmly anchored in modern Europe. It is home to a number of towns that preserve its character and its unique art de vivre making it amongst the most beautiful sites in France. The region’s complex history come to life within the walls of the Vauban Museum or the Haut-Koenigsbourg Castle and Hollandsburg Castle as well as at the Mont Sainte-Odile Monastery.

The Alsace region is home to a multitude of gourmet specialties, each more appetizing than the next! The history of gingerbread can be explored at the Museum of Ginger Bread and Folk Art as well as the Ginger Bread Palace. The winstubs (Alsation restaurants), particularly those awarded Alsace Stars, offer traditional menus with dishes like the Kougelf, the Bascoets, the tart flambée (flammekeuche) and dishes made with the famous Munster cheese.

For true wine enthusiasts, exploring the Alsace Wine Route along with a visit to the Musée des Vins and Alsace Wines, reveals the secrets and favors of artisanal French wines such as the Sylvaner, Pinot Blanc, Noir or Gris, Riesling and Gewürztraminer.

EVENT

The rich collection of events the region has to offer culminates with the grand Strasbourg Christmas Market taking place since 1570, or you can say with a history dating back to 1570. In fact, during the Advent, the magic of Christmas takes over all of Alsace under Santa Nicolas tutelage.

The region’s traditions of gastronomy and craft-making are often on display at one of the many outdoor fairs:

- The Alsace Wine Fair has a history of 260 years. This popular event, with over 350 exhibitors each year invites you to sample some of the products and delicious vintages of the region.
- The Mulhouse Fair: Held annually each spring, this International Exhibition Fair attracts around 150,000 visitors to its many shows, demonstrations, theme exhibitions...
- The Strasbourg European Fair: Receiving more than 220,000 visitors every year, the European Fair is considered the most popular autumn event for the region. Every year, one country is invited as a guest of honor and for 11 days visitors explore the customs and traditions of the guest country, its crafts and culture - not to mention its gastronomy - and much more.
BURGUNDY HAS LONG BEEN RECOGNIZED AS A PLACE OF ARTISTIC AND HISTORICAL INTEREST. FAMOUS FOR ITS ROMANESQUE HERITAGE AND EXCEPTIONAL WINES, THE REGION ALSO HOLDS MANY SURPRISES.

Burgundy showcases with great élan its climate (plot of land used for vines) that have recently been bestowed with the UNESCO World Heritage Classification. Wine routes take you through the wine-growing areas of Nuits-Saint-Georges and Chablis by way of the Côtes de Beaune or Pouilly-Fuissé. Renaissance châteaux and medieval castles stand tall amongst the vineyards: Ancy-le-Franc, Bazoches, Sully or Châteauneuf-en-Auxois. Should you fancy something out of the ordinary, take a trip to the Puitsaye and visit Guedelon, where a medieval castle is being constructed using nothing but period techniques.

From the fortifications at Bibracte to the temple of Janus in Autun, a number of historical treasures bear witness to the region’s influence over the centuries. In Cluny, Vezelay, La Charité-sur-Loire and Fontenay, you can contemplate the spiritual heritage of the Cîteaux and Cistercian orders. In the region’s historic capital, Dijon, take time to admire the glazed tile roofs and the Ducal Palace.

Burgundy offers the very best in river tourism, having the largest network of inland waterways in France. Sail along the renowned Canal de Bourgogne or take a trip on the Canal du Nivernais where you can admire the ingenious series of locks known as the ‘Echelle de Sancy’.
ITINERARIES

DIJON
Explore the history of Dijon and savour the charm of the former capital of the Dukes of Burgundy. Follow the way which takes you on a 22-stage trail allowing you to discover the key areas of this very beautiful city. Explore the surrounding streets and you’ll soon come across the St-Michel church with a twin-towered façade unlike any other you’ll see in France. Finally, the Musard Museum will answer all your questions about this product which is authentic to the region and is also reputed to be Dijon’s most famous culinary product.

DAY 2
AROUND BURGUNDY
First you’ll escape through the rolling Auois countryside along the Burgundy canal... In about an hour’s time, you will reach the medieval town of Semur-en-Auois. Enjoy your time walking in the street and stop for pâtisseries and a spectacular view of the city’s fortress walls. Then, follow this with a visit to the Abbaye de Fontenay (17th century) listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Or choose to discover the Curny abbey, ruins of a spiritual centre, the seat of the largest medieval monastic order in Western Europe. A 3D film and virtual reconstructions illustrate the majestic glory of what was Christianity’s largest church.

BEAUNE
Explore the French history in Beaune, once the capital of Burgundy and which still preserves some excellent historic monuments. The Hôtel-Dieu, one of the most prestigious historical monuments in France, is a medieval masterpiece with a fanciful tied roof and much of the old city wall is intact. A walk through the winding streets of the city center is a great way to spend the day while the evening offers all sorts of culinary temptations in this renowned hotspot of gastronomy, and viticulture.

HIGHLIGHT EVENT

A TWO THOUSAND YEAR OLD CITY, SITUATED AT THE JUNCTION OF THE RHÔNE AND SAÔNE RIVERS, LYON RESTS BELOW THE IMPRESSIVE FOURVIÈRE AND CROIX ROUSSE HILLS.

In Lyon, visitors can take a unique journey through time and across cultures by strolling down its narrow streets, crossing its traboules (narrow secret passages), walking along its bustling docks, passing through its impressive squares and seeing over 200 sites illuminated at night.

Lyon, Capital of Gastronomy
Lyon is famous all over the world for the art of fine living. With many Michelin-star restaurants, famous chefs, typical ‘bouchon’ restaurants, café bistrots and avant-garde dining experiences: whatever your taste, there is something for you. Vibrant flavours and colours can also be found throughout the open-air markets or in the Halles de Lyon Paul Bocuse, a covered market with permanent stalls where famous chefs stock up.

Lyon, a UNESCO World Heritage Site
With a rich history, the town has a remarkable architectural heritage. Spreading eastward over the centuries, without building over existing sites, the city has 5100 hectares in the heart of town listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1998. Across its various districts, Lyon exhibits a wide range of architecture, from the Roman vestiges in the Fourvière district to the traboules passageways of the Vieux-Lyon Renaissance district, the subtle porphyry between the Rhône and Saône rivers as well as the contemporary projects of Renzo Piano (Cité Internationale), Jean Nouvel (Opera House) and Santiago Calatrava (the TGV train station at Lyon Saint-Exupéry Airport).
LYON

Start your day at the Fourvière Basilica or in La Croix Rousse, with its silk-weaver workshops. Continue in one of the museums of the city: Musée des Confluences, Fine Arts Museum, Cité Internationale de la Lumière or Textile Museum. Spend the afternoon with some shopping on the Presqu’île or walking along the Rhône and the Saône. After a dinner in a typical bouchon restaurant, enjoy an evening walk in the city, with 200 sites illuminated each evening.

BEAUJOLAIS

Famed throughout the world, the Beaujolais wine region is home to an infinite number of treasures and flavours at the doorstep of Lyon. The Beaujolais wine route will introduce you to the richness and conviviality of the region with its châteaux, beautiful hill landscapes and delectable wines. Don’t miss Villefranche-sur-Saône and its Renaissance courtyards, Gingelot village and the Beaujolais des Pierres Dorées area. Mont Brouilly and its panoramic views, Hameau Duboeuf, the first wine park in Beaujolais or Château de la Châtre at Cidans.

DAY 3
1 OR 2 HOURS FROM LYON

Cocked between mountain and known as the “Venice of the Alps,” Annecy charms with its 50 lakes and its elegant flower-decked quays intersected with canals. Discover local sites such as the 12th century Palace de l’Isle – an island fortress located in the River Thiou which offers splendid views of the Old Town.

For a green escape, go canoeing in the Drôme or in the Ardèche Gorges around the Arc Bridge or swimming in the great Alpine Lakes, golfing on prestigious greens such as the Evian Masters Golf Club (where the tournament of the same name is held).

HIGHLIGHT EVENT

MUSÉE DES CONFLUENCES IN LYON

Narrating the story of humankind, the Musée des Confluences is a nebulous structure made of glass, concrete and steel, sitting on the tip of a peninsula on the Confluence of the Rhône and Saône rivers. This futuristic monument is worthy of its ambition to unveil knowledge and provide the keys to understanding the intricate field of human knowledge. In fact, the Museum inherited over two million pieces collected from the 16th century to date. Referred to as “The 21st Century’s Cabinet of Curiosities,” the institution finds its roots in paleontology, mineralogy, zoology, entomology and ethnography.

Visitors keen to understand the origins and evolution of life will be thrilled to discover the Museum’s treasures which include mammal and dinosaur skeletons.

This is also the second most starred region in the French Michelin Guide - think of Paul Bocuse or the Troisgros brothers. The Lyonnais bouchons (traditional and authentic restaurants associated with Lyon) offer couscous salads [a pork specialty], quenelles [ground fish dumplings], cervelle de canut [fresh cheese seasoned with herbs], pruneaux and the Lyonnais coquillages (a dessert made of chocolate and marzipan).

FESTIVAL OF LIGHTS IN LYON: BETWEEN TRADITION AND MODERNITY

History tells us that in 1643, Lyon made a vow to build a statue of the Virgin Mary if she spared the city from the scourge of the plague. A vow was made and the promise kept. Centuries later, the city commemorates it with 4 days of illuminated parties at night, with a strong root in the religious and secular traditions of the former capital of the Gauls.

Every night, Lyon turns into an open-air theatre. From candles in the windows to light shows from artists from around the world, Lyon is completely illuminated. The walls of the monuments become bright paintings and works of evanescent art. Multimedia artists showcase the architecture of Lyon’s monuments with laser technology. The sculptures dance and walls come alive: the shows narrate a musical and truly flamboyant story.

Annecy - a picturesque location nestled between lakes and mountains. Must see attractions in Annecy include:
- A guided visit of the old town of Annecy
- The Château of Annecy
- A cruise on the lake of Annecy on a sailing catamaran / A lake safari in a jetty
- A discovery of Annecy in a ZEV Cabriolet or a convertible beetle
- A hot air balloon ride over lake Annecy and the Aravis mountains / Scenic Flights on board a gyrocopter
- Recreational options such as: Walking, cycling, rollerblading, kayaking, tandem paragliding, bungee jumping and canoeing.

DAY 3
SKI IN THE ALPS
During the winter season (December to March), you can enjoy skiing in France’s famous historic ski resorts such as Chamonix and Megève as well as its major skiing areas such as the Trois Vallées (Courchevel, Méribel and Les Menuires), Paradiski (Les Arcs, La Plagne and Pipay-Vallandry), Val Thorens, Morzine and Les 2 Alpes.

The Alps are the ideal destination for a whole host of leisure and outdoor activities - skiing, hiking, mountain treasuring, water rafting, mountain biking, thermal baths and much more.

HIGHLIGHT
From the mythical Mont Blanc to the majestic Pont d’Arc in the gorges of Ardèche nature puts on a show while you recharge body and soul at Evian or on the shores of alpine lakes. Mont Blanc overlooks the Alps, which are home to the largest ski area in the world. Here you can enjoy downhill or cross-country skiing, snowboarding, snowshoe walks, sled rides, ice diving, curling, etc.

Non skiers can also enjoy an unforgettable holiday because the mountains in winter and summer offer much more. There are amazing landscapes to discover, unique experiences to try and intense pleasures to enjoy. All these ingredients ensure a fun time with friends and family.

Those who enjoy the great outdoors will enjoy a hike in the high mountains. The more adventurous might want to try a snowmobile or dog sled. Enjoy a night in a chalet or even an igloo for an unforgettable experience! Take advantage of a stay in the Alps to explore the majestic Mont Blanc, the highest peak in Europe. The valley of Val Ferret, which is highly appreciated by hikers, is known for its wonderful view of the French and Italian slopes of the Mont Blanc range.

Thanks to a strong age-old tradition, alpine regions have retained their authenticity when it comes to gastronomy. The well known classics are cheese fondues, scalloped potatoes and tartiflette (cheese, bacon and potato pie). There are many other Alpine specialties awaiting discovery such as crozets (buckwheat pasta), diets (sausage), ravioli and tourteras (fritters) not to mention liqueurs made from rhum or wormwood such as聘请一位。A holiday in the mountains can also be a perfect moment to unwind. The mountains are not only synonymous with pure air and water, but are conducive to a zen attitude. That is why many famous health spas and fitness centres are here.

The internationally famous Evian springs yield a mineral water with recognised virtues. The town therefore has numerous centres for water cures, such as the Thermes d’Evian and spas in luxury hotels such as the Evian Royal Resort complex.

The Rhône-Alpes offers many possibilities for outdoor activities and is also an idyllic retreat for wellness experiences.

In the South of France, between the contemplative mountains and the Mediterranean Sea, is nestled a region of light and vibrant colours. Just three hours by train from Paris, the sky here is azure and the sun always shines. In Provence, the sea is at your feet and the Alpine peaks are just a few hours away. You know you are in Provence when lavender fields stretch as far as the eye can see. But it’s not just lavender that awaits you here... You have a rendezvous with cosmopolitan Marseille, a cultural encounter with Avignon in the shadow of the Palais des Papes or with the Roman Arena in Arles and a breathtaking experience with the region’s famous hilltop villages.

Provence can be explored on foot, by bike or on horseback. The region will delight visitors searching for unique art de vivre experiences, with its stunning landscapes, evocative scents and impressive natural scenery. From the Calanques of Marseille to the port of Saint-Jean-Cap-Ferrat, the Mediterranean will gently rock you in its sapphire waters.

Provence also offers a wide range of outdoor activities. Numerous National Parks and its mountain range reveal a maze of paths and tracks ideal for hiking, walking, canoeing, rafting and other white-water sports. In winter, the ski resorts of the Alps in the Haute Provence area offer all kinds of snow sports, from snowboarding to the luge, sledding, snowkiting and snowshoeing.

Visit Avignon which was the seat of the French popes during the Middle Ages. The city boasts of historical sites that include the Palais des Papes, the famous Pont d’Avignon, ramparts, churches and chapels. Today, Avignon is a vibrant city in Provence.

HIGHLIGHT EVENT

Wander off from Marseille to discover surrounding Provence lavender fields, the quaint hilltop villages of the Luberon or the Cévennes such as Gordes, St Rémy de Provence, Les Baux de Provence or for best views of the surrounding countryside.

The stunning natural landscapes of Provence: Saint Rémy de Provence, Aix en Provence, Avignon, Nîmes, Mont Ventoux and Gordes, one of the most beautiful villages in France, and its Renaissance castles and traditional old buildings.

Savour Provencal cuisine that offers a striking contrast between hearty mountain fare (gratin dauphinois, ravioli, rissoles, and cassoulet d’Ardèche) and the light, perfumed dishes of Provence and Mediterranean cuisine (ratatouille, aioli, pesto, bouillabaisse and bouillabaisse) that put a healthy dose of sunshine onto your plate. On the sweet side, try the honey, calissons (candy made melon), chocolate mendiants and quince pastes. The Aptifl is a big part of local culture in Provence. Try a Pastis or a cold glass of one of the famous local rose wines (Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Côtes de Provence, Rasteau and Bandol). You will find these products, as well as olive oil, in the markets of Provence.

CELEBRATE PROVENCE’S COLOURFUL TRADITIONS

Enjoy the Easter Feria in Arles and the ‘Pilgrimage of the Saints-Maries-de-la-Mer’ events that proudly highlight the colourful traditions of Provence and Camargue. The Chorégies d’Orange classical music festival, the Avignon Festival, the International Lyric Art Festival of Aix en Provence and the Festival in Flamantifat attract culture virtuosi and art lovers from all over the world.

Created in 1920 and made an annual event in 1946, the famous ‘Corso de la Lavande’ in Digne les Bains is a spectacular lavender parade that annually accentuates the heady aromas of these purple flowers that are so typical of Provence.

You can watch the parade all day and night, the exhibitions of decorated floats and fragrant lavender, led by majorettes and musicians from all over Europe. A huge funfair, one of the ten largest in France, provides the backdrop for this traditional festival in the South of France.

ITINERARIES

DAY 1
AJACCIO, ALL YEAR ROUND!

Did you know that Ajaccio was the birthplace of French Emperor Napoleon Bonaparte? Capital of Corsica, bustling city Ajaccio boasts of numerous boutiques and prestigious museums. A luminous city that opens out onto the Mediterranean, Ajaccio is sheltered by a remarkable natural environment, backed by mountains and fringed by sandy beaches, all blessed with perfect mild climate. Take a boat trip out to the îles Sanguinaires, located about 15 km from the city centre, and stay there for a day because they are formed of granite that glows red at sunset.

Once night falls, the city adorned with its lights invites you to enjoy what the locals call "farniente", relaxing in one of the many wine bars and sampling a glass of excellent DOC Ajaccio wine all year round.

Ajaccio is waiting for you!

DAY 2
NATURE

Corsica is a paradise for nature lovers with a number of sites listed on the UNESCO World Heritage List. In the South of the island, you might want to discover the Calo de Bavella, a great place to appreciate the stunning scenery of the Alta Rocca mountains.

In the North, the Balagne region is home to a beautiful coastline and imposing mountains. If you find yourself by the sea, don’t miss the UNESCO-classified Scandola Nature Reserve and 'Calanche di Piana' at Porto.

BONIFACIO THE CITY OF CLIFFS

Bonifacio boasts of an extraordinary setting at the southern tip of Corsica, overlooking the spectacular site known as "Les Bouches de Bonifacio" (The Strait of Bonifacio). The limestone and granite cliffs here create a vast natural façade opposite the Levanzo and Corseilles islands, famous for their superb marine life. The Bonifacio region has 70 km of coastline dotted with numerous beaches of crystal-clear water.

HIGHLIGHT

CORSICA IS HOME TO MANY TRADITIONS AS WELL AS ARTS AND CRAFTS

Corsican music and culture has always been passed down through word of mouth. The local popular type of singing uses two (sometimes three) registers of voices that are brought together (known as secunda, basso and terza). The Paghella is a very special type of singing where the secunda voice comes in as a solo, followed by the basso voice and shortly afterwards by the terza. This type of popular polyphonic singing has stood the test of time. Enjoy one of the many festivals that are held such as Festa di Corte in Pigna (from Corsican polyphonies to medieval singing and opera...) or the Rencontres Polyphoniques in Calvi and many more!

Numerous artists have made their home in the historic town centres and villages and offer a range of genuine works of art. Corsican knives, pottery, jewellery and leather goods.

EVENT

CALVI ON THE ROCKS

Every July, don’t miss ‘Calvi On The Rocks’, a festival with the biggest DJs in the world that offers non-stop concerts. Calvi on the Rocks is a unique festival which combines digital arts, electronic music and the easy-going, sun-soaked Corsican lifestyle.

By following an artistic trail through the city, revelers can enjoy the many cultural and festive events taking place, from the traditional to the very contemporary.

Festival-goers can not only spend their time attending parties and dancing to wild sets by internationally renowned DJs, but also relaxing by the sea, enjoying an aperitif with a suitably chilled out sunset soundtrack.

GETTING THERE

Corsica is located in the heart of the Mediterranean, 570 km off the French coast and 83 km from Italy. Corsica is accessible throughout the year by air and by sea with 4 international airports (Bastia, Calvi, Figari and Ajaccio) served by over twenty scheduled and charter airlines with direct flights from Paris.
MILES OF FINE SANDY BEACHES ALONG THE MEDITERRANEAN AND A HINTERLAND RISING UP THE FOOTHILLS OF THE MASSIF CENTRAL AND THE PYRÉNÉES - THESE ARE CLASSIC IMPRESSIONS OF A LAND OF SUN-FILLED CHARM.

This is also a land replete with vineyards where the land and climate is especially favourable. The seaside resorts along Languedoc's 200 km-long coastline tempt visitors to relax by the sea. Make your way to the Cévennes foothills and explore the area on foot, on the back of a donkey or by a steam train.

The region is abundant with natural landscapes such as Causses and Cévennes (UNESCO Classified), La Côte Rocheuse (with Collioure, Banglui and Port-Vendres), and the rocky coast of the Pyrénées (the Canigou) and ski stations such as Fenou-Encorons. Many great artists have represented this variety, notably the contemporary painters and sculptures (Musée Fabre in Montpellier, Carné d'Art in Nîmes and the Museum of Modern Art in Cèret). Thanks to the Mediterranean and numerous springs, the Languedoc is rich in thalassotherapy centres, spas and fitness centres.

Do not miss the fortified city of Carcassonne, the 48 metre high Roman aqueduct Pont du Gard, the Canal du Midi, all on the UNESCO World Heritage List; the university town of Montpellier with its historic centre; the Roman city of Nîmes and for those wanting natural encounters: on the nature side, the picturesque canyons of the Tarn Gorges and the Camargue Regional Park where bulls and horses roam.
ITINERARIES

NIMES - PONT DU GARD

Nîmes gained a significant heritage from the presence of the Romans. Among the most remarkable remains are the Maison Carrée, a wonderfully preserved Roman temple; the Tour Magne, not forgetting the majestic amphitheatre that hosts concerts and shows.

30 kms from Nîmes, the Pont du Gard aqueduct, a true masterpiece of ancient architecture, is one of the most beautiful Roman constructions in the region and is also noted for its remarkable natural beauty.

DAY 2
MONTPELLIER

The Three Graces decorate the fountain that you can admire in the famous Place de la Comédie. Montpellier is a city of designers that you will discover in the Saint Roch district and its workshops and boutiques. Montpellier is also home to the oldest university of medicine still functional in Europe, as well as more than 79 private mansion courtyards. Include a visit to the Fabre Museum where you can admire paintings, sculptures, graphic and decorative arts.

DAY 3
CARCASSONNE

Visit the medieval city of Carcassonne, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and walk along the galleries, the fortified walls and the ramparts; discover the archaeological museum and many other attractions. Relive the Cathar siege and admire the surrounding vineyards from the top of its 52 towers.

HIGHLIGHT EVENT

MAJESTIC NATURE

An authentic area such as the Gorges du Tarn and Gorges de la Jonte, are natural and spectacular gems. Further south stretches Camargue, bathed in sunshine, with its white horses, black bulls and pink flamingos populating the lagoons.

Closer to Montpellier, the Pic Saint Loup rears its sharp spine and towers over the scrubland. More sinuous, with their startlingly steep slopes, jagged walls and narrow passages, the Gorges de l’Hérault are a backdrop to the beautiful medieval village of Saint-Guilhem le Désert. Towards the south awaits the discovery of the precious jewels of the Côte Vermillon with Collioure, Port-Vendres and the terraces of Banyuls, a landscape of vineyards planted on terraced hillsides. The backdrop is formed by the Mont Canigou which the Catalans take great pride in and which forms a bridge between sea and mountains.

The Cevennes National Park, with its low mountains in the heart of Cévennes, at 91,500 hectares, is the largest of the seven national parks of France. It is also the only national park that is inhabited and on the list of UNESCO World Biosphere Reserves.

The Pentecost Holiday and the harvest festivals in Nîmes or the Féria d'Alès showcase the strong celebratory spirit of the people of the Languedoc. The Festival of Carcassonne, the Festival of Nîmes and the Musical Nights of Alès punctuate the summer. The Mediterranean equestrian events raise the flag for sports and the Printemps des Comediens [Spring Festival for Actors] and the International Festival of Noves Novelas do their part for art and culture.

Toulouse-Pyrénées

The Pyrénées region, located in the largest of all French regions, the Midi-Pyrénées, spreads across South-Western France. Exceptional is the perfect word to describe the Great Sites that await you: Albi, Cahors and its vineyards, Rocamadour, the Cirque de Gavarnie, Millau Viaduct and the region’s capital city, Toulouse amongst others.

In the Pyrénées region, there is no shortage of inspirations for stays, whether for relaxation, adventure or for something more cultural. Imagine a weekend strolling through the streets of Toulouse basking in the reddish reflections of the city’s brick and the sparkle of the Aïlous planes built there, a few days in the Pyrénées mountains to catch your breath at the Pic du Midi observatory, a breakaway, in the Aveyron to visit some of the villages hailed as the most beautiful in France, or a cruise on the UNESCO classified Canal du Midi – the list is endless.

For anyone who likes a constantly changing horizon, the Pyrénées offers a number of themed circuits - the route includes major touristic sites, gourmet routes where you can interact with producers as you taste the wonders of the region, or a circuit of fortified villages full of historical features, arcades and timbered buildings with local markets basking in the midday sun. Here celebrations take place at the drop of a hat and the region is well-known for its spontaneous, friendly hospitality and culture.

HIGHLIGHT

Capital City of the Pyrénées region, Toulouse is synonymous with the Airbus. A visit to the Airbus factory acquaints you with this mighty giant of the skies.

The wines of South West France offer a wide array of flavors and are a true treasure trove for the dedicated oenophile. Tourists can explore the ‘Route du ‘Armagnac’ that winds through the vineyards while experiencing the different tastes and sensations from this brandy, known for its unique finesse and roundness. The Pyrénées is home to the iconic French specialties - Foie Gras and Roquefort cheese.

Pink City Toulouse introduces you to all things pastel. Your initiation starts at the elegant ‘Graine de Pastel’ boutique which offers you a range of cosmetic products made with this blue treasure of the Midi-Pyrénées. Experience Pastel in a holistic way at ‘Terre du Pastel’ which offers different experiences all under one roof: spa, museum and restaurant that complete your exquisite rendezvous with pastel!

Lourdes, a world bastion of spirituality, welcomes over 5 million visitors from over 140 countries every year. With 193 hotels, Lourdes is the second biggest hotel town in France.

EVENT

The Montgolfiades [hot-air ballooning competition] in Rocamadour, together with the Intercontinental Festival of Fireworks, will fill the sky over the Midi-Pyrénées with a thousand colours. The Sidérées Electroniques festival marks the beginning of a musical summer in Toulouse, a prelude to the notes of Jazz in Marcillac, the Cahors Blues Festival and the Jazz Festival in Montauban.

Visit the Fête de la Violette

Since the late 19th century, the violet flower has been an emblem for Toulouse. Every year, its arrival in late February is celebrated with aplomb. The Festival of Violets, held at the Place du Capitole, is the venue for the gathering of the ‘Confrérie de la Violette’ or the brotherhood of violets - producers and propagators of this flower. This festival sees celebrations and markets where you can find artisanal products made from this flower, including soaps, fragrances, cordials and nectars, confectons and more.

SHOPPING

BIARRITZ - A SPORTING PARADISE

A worldwide famous surf spot

The American scriptwriter Peter Viertel came to Biarritz in 1957 with his wife Deborah Kerr to shoot his film ‘The Sun Also Rises’. He brought his surf board to practise surfing, an original sport imported from Hawaii, on Biarritz ‘Côte des Basques’. Very quickly, Biarritz gained a reputation as one of the best spots for surfing in Europe and now attracts surfers from all over the world. Surf schools and beach clubs for children are available on every beach. The Biarritz Surf Festival is a popular annual event that takes place every July in this seaside resort.

A stunning place to golf

Biarritz is a meeting point for all golf players as there are exceptional courses (ten courses within a 15 mile radius) and weather conditions which allow outdoor activities all year round. Biarritz has the second oldest golf courses on the European continent, the ‘Golf du Phare’, created in 1889 by the British colony, but also the modern international golf training centre at Ibarritz and 12 other golf courses located within a radius of 12 kilometers (8 miles) of Biarritz.

And if you are looking for more traditional activities, you can watch local people practising the basque pelota!

Brittany is deeply rooted in both the land and the sea, offering breathtaking landscapes and a varied climate. It is a great destination to discover beaches, cliffs, moorland and medieval towns.

Start in Rennes, the capital of Brittany. Explore the spectacular, wild Breton coastline between the Côte d’Emeraude (Emerald Coast) of the Corsair City of Saint-Malo and the mysterious Pink Granite Coast. The Breton coast looks like no other. Amble through the Brocéliande Forest and discover its links to the Arthurian legend. These links between legend and heritage are also reflected in the megaliths of Locmariaquer and in the aligned stones of Carnac. Take a boat trip to one of the many Breton islands for true inspiration: the Île de Groix, Île de Brehat, the Gâchet Archipelago, the Île d’Ouessant and Belle-Ile-en-Mer. The Seven Isles constitute the largest bird sanctuary on the French Coastline. Visit Pont-Aven, a favourite haunt of famous artists such as Paul Gauguin. Rejuvenate at one of the major Thalassotherapy centers (Dinan, Saint-Malo, Port-Crouesty, Quiberon...).

Visit Saint-Brieuc Cathedral, the Locmaria district and Quimper Cathedral, not forgetting Concarneau, the Pays Bigouden and the Pointe du Raz. Offering views over the Gulf of Morbihan, Vannes is the ideal base to explore southern Brittany. The old town is surrounded by sturdy walls which will transport you back to the Middle Ages. Get a real sense of authentic Breton culture at a 'festinor'. And experience Brittany to the full through an unforgettable ‘Brittany Experience’...
ITINERARIES

RENNES

Start your trip in Rennes, that boasts of a 2,000 year old history and a lively cultural scene. Every Saturday morning, the Marché des Lices, France’s 2nd largest market, gathers over 300 local and regional farmers as well as food producers. Visit one of the top cultural sites such as the Champs Libres (Museum of Brittany and Scientific Cultural Centre), the Fine Arts Museum or the Parliament building.

Enjoy a leisurely ramble at the Thabor garden. Rennes owes its well earned reputation to its festivals, concert halls and the sheer amount of events that take place here. However, the city vibrates to the sound of all types of music.

DAY 2
SAINT-MALO - DINARD - MONT SAINT-MICHEL

Escape to Upper Brittany for the day. Recharge your batteries in the bracing sea air of Saint-Malo, the city of the Corsairs, a coastal capital and the jewel of the Emerald Coast or in Dinard, with its stately British villas and filmset atmosphere. Taste the famous Cancale oysters. The Mont Saint-Michel is a stone’s throw from here.

DAY 3
PERROS-GUIREC - CARNAC

Head to the Perros-Guirec and the Pink Granite Coast that offers you a protected natural site of astounding beauty, in which the land and sea are scattered with pink granite rocks that have been shaped by the wind and waves over millennia. Or choose to go to Carnac. Laid out over 6,000 years ago, the stone alignments at Carnac are one of the most important Prehistoric sites in Europe. The 3,000 standing stones are spread over 40 hectares and stretch for 4 km.

HIGHLIGHT

FRANCE GETS CULTURAL

Taste Breton culinary specialties, which range from deli meats to products of the sea. Observe fishermen as they unload their catch of copquilles Saint-Jacques (scallops) on the Port d’Enoc, then head to one of the local restaurants to taste them. Try also the mackerel rillettes or sardine on a tray of seafood. You’ll find France’s most esteemed flat oysters on the Port of Cancale.

Bretons also prepare a wide variety of cured meats: pork rillettes, smoked ham, Henaff pâté, even Guimard andouille, a type of sausage made from chitterlings.

In Gourin, applaud the dexterity of crêpe-makers during the competition for the biggest crêpe. Other Breton delicacies: the plum-based Breton far [a fan-like dessert], the Pont-Aven galette [a flat cake], and the kouign-amann, a round, buttery crusty cake from Douarnenez.

Taste the Royal Guillec, the sole cider with a red label, Breton beers and choucroute: a sauerkraut made by fermenting herring in water or wine.

BRITTANY, A LAND OF FESTIVALS

The homeland of the fest-noz (traditional evening dance) invites its visitors to join in with numerous celebrations. The Festival du Boit du Monde [End of the World Festival], the Festival des Villes Charmantes [a major rock festival], the Festival de Cornouaille, the Festival des Filets Bleus [Blue Nets Festival] and the Inter-Celtic Festival of Lorient are just some of the events that fill the summer season in Brittany.

Among the many key sailing events are the Route du Rhum, the Solitaire du Figaro race or the Gulf of Morbihan Week all celebrating the maritime spirit of Brittany. Even more, the Festival Étrennants Voyageurs [Astonishing Travellers Festival] is a unique event that celebrates the spirit of curiosity. Not to forget the famous Transmusicales in Rennes.

GETTING THERE

Normandy

The French heritage region of Normandy offers visitors a choice between the elegance of the quiet seaside resorts on the Côte Fleurie and the wilder shores and fishing villages along the Cotentin Peninsula. The island of Mont-Saint-Michel, with some of Europe’s highest tides, dominates the surrounding landscape and is a must-see destination for visitors coming to the region. Don’t miss the Côte d’Albâtre with its dramatic white cliffs and secluded creeks and fishing ports Étretat, Fécamp, Dieppe and Veules-les-Roses. Enjoy a cycling experience along the rural paths or driving through the countryside of bocage hedgerows. Take a minute to wander along the Manoir Trail and absorb the peace and tranquility in the Perche area or in the Suisse Normande. Take time to stroll around Giverny, once home to Claude Monet, father of the Impressionist Movement. For the true gourmand at heart, Normandy is a treasure trove of.delectable experiences, with Camembert, Calvados, cider, scallops et al.

Normandy became popular during World War II for the Normandy Landing that resulted in the devastation of the region. It has since then built a reputation for being a cultural and culinary hub for France. The region has two capital cities: Caen in the lower region and Rouen in the upper region. There are a total of 5 sites that have been earmarked as UNESCO World Heritage Sites i.e. Le Havre city center, the Vaucasson Tower on Telhou island, Abbeville, the Bayeux Tapestry and Mont Saint-Michel and the bay.
ITINERARIES

DAY 1
VISIT LE HAVRE, HONFLEUR, DEAUVILLE AND CABOURG

From the port in Le Havre, where Monet painted "Impression Soleil Levant" in 1872, embark on a journey through the birthplace of the greatest Impressionist masterpieces. Travel from Honfleur to Cabourg via Deauville and Trouville, pointing out remnants of the Belle-Epoque and reliving those colourful, carefree days! Much like the artistic movement itself, these charming resorts are bathed in both Norman tradition and modernity. Deauville shares a strong connect with fashion, equestrian pursuits and also offers golfing and a casino that promise unlimited entertainment.

DAY 2
VISIT ROUEN AND THE LANDING BEACHES OF NORMANDY

Take the Normandy highway and make your first stop at Rouen for a visit of the old town before going to Honfleur. On the way between Rouen and Honfleur, enjoy the view of the newly built Normandy bridge.

Continue to the beaches of Normandy and the American Landing Beaches of Omaha. Then visit the American Cemetery of Saint-Laurent and Arromanches and the Caen Memorial Museum. Dinner and overnight stay in Caen.

DAY 3

A broader view of France

A THOUSAND LEAGUES FROM DAY-TO-DAY LIFE, IN THE HEART OF THE PACIFIC, THE ATLANTIC, THE INDIAN OCEAN AND IN SOUTH AMERICA, EXPLORE UNFORGETTABLE FLAVOURS AND EXPERIENCE MAGICAL MOMENTS.

Equatorial forests with dormant volcanoes, roaring waterfalls with waters as clear as a lagoon. France’s overseas territories feature a variety of climates, flora and fauna that can be wild, relaxing and lively. Ramblers and lovers of water sports can indulge their passions in breathtaking landscapes.

Gourmands can sample local flavours while history buffs will be astounded by the authentic lifestyles, traditions and festivities of the local people.

Each of the natural sites and heritage of the overseas territories is protected by national legislation and three are classified by UNESCO as World Heritage Sites.

Perfect for when winter descends upon Europe, French overseas destinations boast high levels of comfort and the same levels of service as mainland France, but they are a lot warmer at that time of the year.
Réunion Island

Réunion can provide visitors with simple enjoyable pleasures such as enjoying an aperitif at sunset or a stroll along almost 14 miles of lagoons on the western coast. But there are also more dramatic exciting distractions such as flying over the island by helicopter, or exploring the potiers, cirques and ramparts that have been classified by UNESCO. There is also the chance to explore the lagoon on a glass-bottomed kayak seeking for the marine life of the Indian Ocean or sail out in a catamaran in search of whales from June to September.

Tahiti and its Islands

Perhaps already the best known of the French overseas territories, Tahiti and its islands have long been a romantic magnet for honeymooners. The hotels that welcome newlyweds are generally made up of luxurious, traditional thatched-roof bungalows built with all the amenities of a first-class hotel room and perched above the turquoise waters of the lagoons. Activities among the islands include swimming and world-class snorkelling in the safe and crystal-clear lagoons that are scattered around this romantic getaway. And for men, a visit to a farm of pearl oysters is essential to find a souvenir gift for their sweetheart.

New Caledonia

Hidden away in the Pacific, this stunning archipelago plays host to perfect beaches and endless UNESCO-protected coral reefs in the world’s largest lagoon. Outdoor activities such as walking or mountain biking respect the local biodiversity while its architecture is reminiscent of Europe and the culture is distinctly Melanesian. The boating capital of the territory is Nouméa, on Grande Terre, home to the five-star Sheraton New Caledonia Deva Resort & Spa. Other options include the five-star Le Meridien Nouméa and the five-star Le Méridien Isle of Pines. Take a 40 minute flight from Nouméa to access the four-star Paradis d’Ouea which is located on an island.

French Guiana

With nearly eight million hectares of rainforest, most classified as protected areas, and a rich natural heritage consisting of some 1,300 types of trees, 150 species of mammals, 753 species of birds, and 480 species of fish, the French Guiana remains one of the last great wilderness areas. On the edge of the Amazon basin, a Regional Natural Park covers 2,752 square miles, with two focuses; to the east, the Kourou marshes, and to the west, the communities of Mana and French Guiana Awala-Yalimapo. The Marais de Kourou is a bird watchers heaven. It is a wetland zone perfect for observing water birds including the Hoatzin, the world’s only species of luminant bird. The park is one of the favourite spots for Luth turtles to lay their eggs (around 10,000 per year). It is easy to explore by travelling up the rivers in a pirogue canoes. During the stopovers, you can sleep in a hammock under the Carbet’s peak or in a floating eco-lodge.

Saint-Martin

Ideally situated in the centre of the Antilles Arc, in the vicinity of numerous other islands, Saint-Martin has earned a great reputation in terms of cruising and pleasure boating over the years. With its 10 marinas, it can welcome up to 1,400 boats. Luxurious and modern, the four marinas on the French side (Fort Louis, Port-la-Royale, Anse Marcel and Captain Oliver’s) offer all the comforts and facilities that sailors require. Sailing enthusiasts can take part in numerous regattas; the most famous of them, the Heineken Regatta, covers over five days during the month of March, bringing together hundreds of the world’s best sailors in an ambiance that is both competitive and festive. Thanks to its shared French and Dutch sovereignty, a double culture has evolved on St Martin, where sophistication mixes day to day with a laid-back style, creating a way of life that is particular to this island.

Martinique

This Island of Flowers offers an immense diversity of landscapes, with its beaches of white and black sand, volcanic landscape, verdant mountains and a tropical forest blanketing the hills. And travelers can be the envy of all when they treat themselves to a week-long event under the Martinique sun at the five-star Cap Est Lagoon Resort & Spa. A member of Relais & Châteaux, the resort is set on a peninsula just five miles from the town of Le François. At the hotel, everything is taken care of to ensure guests enjoy a relaxing break, with well-being and discreet luxury.

The Islands of Guadeloupe: a Unique Archipelago in the World

In Basse-Terre, climb up to La Soufrière volcano summit, still active, and discover at Grande-Terre architectural treasures. Enjoy a sunbath at wonderful white and golden sand beaches...

La Gomme et les Trois-Îlets are its exceptional ecological reserve. At Saintes Island, marvel at its breathtaking bag which is one of the most beautiful in the world. And it is at Marie-Galante, where you will discover sweet fragrances and flavours of the oldest rum of the archipelago.
